Please print this ticket and present to staff before entering the auditorium.

Please ensure you have personal ID and any proof of entitlement to concessions if applicable.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF TICKET SALE

You need a valid ticket which must be produced to enter the auditorium. Please check carefully the theatre, date and time printed on the front of the ticket as mistakes cannot always be rectified after the booking has been confirmed. Babies-in arms are not admitted to the auditorium and all children must be old enough to occupy their own seats. The lower age limit for unaccompanied minors in our buildings and in the auditorium is 12 years old. The advertised running time may change so please check with the Box Office before the performance. The RSC reserves the right to refuse admission in reasonable circumstances or to request any ticket holder to leave the theatre and take appropriate action to enforce this right. If you arrive later than the advertised start time or you need to leave the auditorium for any reason then you may be asked to wait until a suitable break in the performance before you can take your seat. This may be the interval. To ensure our audience safety the RSC may conduct occasional security searches which may include searching in your bag before entering the auditorium. The ticket can only be refunded in the event of a cancelled performance. Details of our Ticket Exchange and Resale Policy can be found on your ticket wallet. In the event of a cancelled performance, the RSC will not be liable for additional travel or accommodation expenses. Reselling your ticket for profit or commercial gain makes it void. The RSC reserves the right to make alteration to the advertised details for the performance at short notice (for example cast changes). In these instances the RSC is not obliged to refund the ticket or exchange it for another performance. On rare occasions the performance or public areas may be filmed, sound recorded or photographed. Buying a ticket affirms your consent to the filming, sound recording and/or photography of yourself as a member of the audience and possible subsequent broadcasts or publications. The RSC cannot be held responsible for the loss or damage to your personal property whilst at the venue. The unauthorised use of cameras, videos or any other audio or visual recording equipment is strictly forbidden. Mobile phones, tablets, pagers and digital watches must be turned off at all times in the auditorium. Strobe lighting, smoke effects (including smoking on stage), loud bangs and gunshots are sometimes used in productions. Please contact a member of staff for further details. For Health & Safety reasons, wheelchair users are not permitted to transfer into fixed seating. The paper ticket remains the property of the Royal Shakespeare Company.
